29. Parliament shall appropriate for the use of the House of Assembly for any financial year no less than 6.8 percent of the total sum appropriated by Parliament in that financial year or such other percentage to be determined by the Fiscal Review Committee and approved by the Parliament by Resolution.

Tobago Fund

30. (1) There shall be a fund to be called “the Tobago Fund” which shall consist of –

(a) such monies as shall be appropriated by Parliament for the use of the Tobago Island Government; and

(b) such other monies as the Tobago Island Government may lawfully collect, borrow or be granted.

(2) Monies appropriated by Parliament for the service of the financial year of the House of Assembly shall be credited to the Tobago Fund in quarterly releases in advance en bloc.

Collection of revenues

31. (1) Notwithstanding section 13 of the Exchequer and Audit Act, all revenue collected in Tobago on behalf of the Government and payable thereto in respect of activities undertaken or discharged in Tobago shall be paid into the Tobago Fund.

(2) Upon the coming into force of this Act, any company, financial institution or a person operating a business in Tobago shall pay in Tobago all taxes, fees, duties, levies and other imposts in respect of its operations in Tobago.

(3) Monies credited to the Tobago Fund in accordance with subsections (1) and (2) shall be set-off against the annual allocation appropriated by Parliament to the Tobago Fund.

Expenditure                   32. All expenditure incurred by the Tobago Island Government shall be paid out of the Tobago Fund.

Audit of accounts           33. The accounts of the House of Assembly are public accounts of Trinidad and Tobago for the purposes of section 116 of the Constitution.

Retention of monies           34. Monies appropriated by Parliament to the Tobago Fund for the service of a financial year which remain unexpended at the end of that financial year shall be retained by the House of Assembly.

Surrender of surplus monies   35. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where in any financial year, monies paid into the Tobago Fund in accordance with section 30 exceed the quantum appropriated by Parliament to the Tobago Fund for that year, the Tobago Island Government shall retain fifty per cent or such larger portion as the Minister with responsibility for finance, may by Order specify in respect of that year, of such excess to be applied towards such projects as it considers fit.

(2) The Tobago Island Government shall surrender the balance of the excess to the Consolidated Fund within the first quarter of the following financial year.

Power to borrow               36. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Tobago Executive Council shall have the power to borrow locally and internationally such sums as the Tobago Executive Council considers necessary for the discharge of its functions.

(2) The Tobago Executive Council may borrow –

- (a) for any purpose relevant to its functions under any written law;
- (b) for the purpose of the prudent management of its financial affairs;
- (c) for the purpose of any investment as approved by the Tobago Executive Council; and
- (d) for any other purpose approved by the Tobago Legislature, subject to the approval of the Minister with responsibility for finance, which should not unreasonably be withheld.

Power to invest

37. (1) The Tobago Executive Council may invest -

- (a) for any purpose relevant to its functions under any law;
- (b) for the purpose of the prudent management of its financial affairs;
- (c) money that is not, for the time being, required by the Tobago Executive Council for any other purpose; and
- (d) only in a form of investment approved by the Tobago Legislature.

(2) The Tobago Executive Council shall delegate its responsibility for the management of an investment account to the Central Bank.

Financial Rules

38. The Secretary with responsibility for finance shall make Financial Rules as are necessary for the proper management of the finances of the Tobago Island Government which Rules shall be approved by the Tobago Legislature.

Description of property

39. In any civil or criminal proceedings in respect of any monies or other property whatsoever belonging to, or under the control of the Tobago Island Government, it shall be sufficient to describe the same as being the monies or property of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago.

Tobago
Appropriation
Bills

40. (1) The Secretary responsible for finance shall cause to be prepared and laid before the House of Assembly not later than thirty days after the monies which have been appropriated by Parliament for use by the Tobago Island Government after the commencement of each financial year, estimates of the revenues and expenditure of Tobago Island Government for that year.

(2) The heads of expenditure contained in the estimates, other than expenditure charged upon the Consolidated Fund by the Constitution or any Act, shall be included in a Bill, to be known as the 'Tobago Appropriation Bill', providing for the issue from the monies which have been appropriated by Parliament under subsection (1) to the Tobago House of Assembly Fund to be monies necessary to meet that expenditure and the appropriation of those monies for the purposes specified therein.

(3) If in respect of any financial year it is found-

- (a) that the amount appropriated by the Tobago Appropriation

Act for any purpose is insufficient or that a need has arisen for expenditure for a purpose for which no amount has been appropriated by the Act; or

- (b) that any monies have been expended for any purpose in excess of the amount appropriated for that purpose by the Tobago Appropriation Act or for a purpose for which no amount has been appropriated by the Act, a supplementary estimate showing the monies appropriated by Parliament for use by the Tobago House of Assembly shall be laid before the Tobago House of Assembly and the heads of any such expenditure shall be included in a Supplementary Tobago Appropriation Bill.

Contingencies
Fund

41. (1) The House of Assembly may provide for the establishment of a Contingencies Fund and for authorising the Secretary with responsibility for finance, if he is satisfied that there has arisen an urgent and unforeseen need for expenditure for which no other provision exists, to make advances from the Fund to meet that need.

(2) Where any advance is made in accordance with subsection (1), a supplementary estimate shall be presented and a Supplementary Appropriation Bill shall be introduced as soon as possible for the purpose of replacing the amount so advanced.

(3) Estimates containing the details of the financial requirements shall be presented at the same time as any such Bill and shall immediately stand referred to the Standing Finance Committee.

(4) The procedure for the passage of the Appropriation Bill or the Supplementary Appropriation Bill in the Tobago Legislature shall be set out in the Standing Orders and shall include the referral of such Bills together with the relevant Estimates to the Standing Finance Committee of the House of Assembly.

Fiscal Review
Committee

42. (1) There shall be established a Fiscal Review Committee which shall comprise—

- (a) a Chairman, who shall be the Minister with responsibility for finance or his alternate;
- (b) a Deputy Chairman, who shall be the Secretary with responsibility for finance or his alternate;
- (c) one member appointed by the Tobago Executive Council; and

(d) two members appointed by the Cabinet.

(2) The members of the Commission appointed under subsection (1) (c) and (d) shall be qualified and have at least ten years of experience in-

(a) law;

(b) management or business administration;

(c) finance or accounting; or

(d) economics.

(3) The members of the Fiscal Review Committee shall serve for a period no less than two years and no more than five years.

(4) The responsibilities of the Fiscal Review Committee shall be to –

(a) determine and recommend to Parliament the sums required to be appropriated to Tobago in each financial year;

(b) establish a mechanism for revenue sharing between the Tobago Island Government and the Government of Trinidad and Tobago;

(c) ensure that all revenues, fees and duties collected in Trinidad that are attributable to Tobago such as from custom duties, import duties and stamp duties and other duties shall be held for the account of Tobago;

(d) to initiate special audits into any financial matter of the Tobago Island Government; and

(e) give due consideration to the financial and developmental needs of Tobago in the context of Trinidad and Tobago and shall allocate financial resources to Tobago as fairly as is practicable, and in determining what is fair and practicable, the following considerations, among others, shall apply:

(i) physical separation of Tobago by sea from Trinidad;

(ii) isolation from the principal national growth centres;

(iii) absence of the multiplier effect of expenditures and investments (private and public) made in Trinidad;

(iv) restricted opportunities for employment and career fulfillment; and

(v) the impracticability of participation by residents of Tobago in the major educational, cultural and sporting facilities located in Trinidad.

(5) The Fiscal Review Committee shall submit to Parliament prior to the presentation of the budget in any financial year a report on the review of the sums required to be appropriated.

(6) The report of the Fiscal Review Committee shall be taken into consideration by Parliament in making an appropriation above 6.8 percent in any financial year.

PART V

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Assemblymen deemed to be elected Assembly
Members

43. Notwithstanding section 57, the persons who were Assemblymen of the former Assembly immediately prior to the coming into force of this Act shall, on its coming into force, be deemed to have been elected as Assembly Members pursuant to section 141B of the Constitution, and shall for the purpose of any law relating to the payment of pension benefits to such members not be disqualified solely by reason of this section.

Continuation of matters and rules
of the Tobago
House of Assembly

44. (1) Any matter before the House of Assembly which immediately before the commencement of this Act was not disposed of by the Tobago House of Assembly shall continue under the Tobago Legislature.

(2) The rules and orders of the Tobago House of Assembly in force immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall, to the extent that they can mutatis mutandis be applied in respect of the business and proceedings of the Tobago Legislature, continue in force until amended or replaced under this Act.

Saving of employment

45. (1) A person who was employed by an institution established under the Tobago House of Assembly Act, immediately before the date of the coming into force of this Act shall, on that date, be transferred to the Tobago Island Government and all the rights, privileges, tenure and other terms and conditions of service incidental to such employment shall continue in such employment subject to and in accordance with this Act and any other applicable laws regulating such employment.

(2) The superannuation benefits which have accrued to a person under subsection (1), who prior to the coming into force of this Act was employed by the former Assembly, shall be preserved at the date of his transfer to the Tobago Island Government, and such person shall continue to accrue superannuation benefits on the basis of the salary applicable to the office which he held immediately prior to his transfer to the Tobago Island Government.

(3) Executive authority which was vested in any person, immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall during the period in which that person continues in office in terms of subsection (1), be exercised in accordance with the Tobago House of Assembly Act, as if it had not been repealed or superseded by this Act, and any such person shall continue to administer any Division or other institution which was entrusted to, and to exercise and perform any power or function which was vested in him immediately before that commencement.

(4) A person who immediately before the commencement of this Act was employed on contract by an institution established under the Tobago House of Assembly Act shall continue in such employment under this Act, until the expiration of the term of the contract.

Staff of the
Tobago Island
Government

46. (1) This section applies to an officer who, on the date of the coming into force of this Act-

(a) holds a permanent appointment to; or

(b) holds a temporary appointment to, and has served at least two continuous years in, an office in the Public Service on the establishment of the Tobago House of Assembly.

(2) A person to whom this section applies may, within three months of the coming into force of this Act exercise one of the following options:
